Helena is a talented dancer with a vivacious, elegant style and infectious enthusiasm! An experienced performer and teacher and a member of Equity, Helena is based in Leeds and has been a resident dancer at city centre venue Spice Quarter for over two years.

“A breathtaking performance of grace and elegance”

Helena’s fun, outgoing nature makes her in high demand for private celebrations such as birthdays, weddings and hen nights. She has also worked with many prestigious corporate clients including:

- ❖ Girl Guiding UK
- ❖ Condé Nast
- ❖ BUPA
- ❖ Leeds Metropolitan University
- ❖ Jet 2
- ❖ Bettys & Taylors

“Practically Egyptian... an English Tahia Carioca!”

Skilled in several styles of belly dance, Helena has experience of dancing with live bands and can incorporate veil work, finger cymbals, Isis wings, cane dance and sword balancing for variety and drama. She has full public liability insurance.

*“Everyone enjoyed
Helena's workshop...
All in all a BIG hit!”*

Helena is also a well-established teacher, running popular courses and classes in Leeds city centre.

She is available to teach workshops as part of events and parties and has provided workshops for corporate events, primary schools, the Girl Guides and the Women’s Institute.

Helena has been featured in the Leeds Guide, the Yorkshire Evening Post, the Evesham Journal and JLife magazine.
